i remember a time (doesn't feel like too long ago) all my heroes were seen give me advise, treat me to pie tell stories of herbie and jean take me fishin, Melrose* deep dishin' bottomless pot of coffee teach me thinkin', hopin' it'd sink in that life's lessons weren't free now they're gone

this is my last hero song maybe it's time to be somebody's hero like they were to me (2x) somebody's teacher, somebody's friend someone with a bond that nothing can rend somebody's go to, someone's never f-fail to carry your torch, to empty your pail someone to confide in, somebody's true someone to teach you to curse in Hebrew somebody's partner, somebody's last stand somebody's main man somebody's hero like they were to me (2x) i hope to be somebody's hero...
